

BFR -Decadence Fathers Day - 19 June 2011

The word Decadence conjures up images of luscious surroundings, scrumptious food and copious amounts of exotic drinks. It sounds exactly what Fathers would need after a very hard year of protecting their families.

Well not Harley Hog-Dads. Not if one looks at the number of participants in the Fathers day Breakfast Run on Sunday 19th June. There were only 18 bikes with 20 riders (4 girls, 2 pillions) and one car. Maybe the HOG ladies organised something special for their men-folk at home.

Father Pieter le Roux was Road Captain, ably assisted by marshals Heather, Stoffel, Johan Olivier, Johan van Graan, Keith Lee, Rodger and Mac. Wicus was Lead, Mario the Sweep, Gert as Safety Officer and according to the roster the Biker Buddy was Peter de Meyer. I am documenting all this on hearsay because I was also one of the Fathers that were spoilt with a camping trip in the bushveld.

The 86km ride ended at the Decadence restaurant. I am sorry that I cannot tell you sappy stories or share some mishaps with you – maybe next time.
